

This section provides various step-by-step exercises for the handler and dog to practice.

Exercises can be chosen according to the dog's needs. Each step of each chosen exercise should be practiced to perfection before moving onto the subsequent step. Some exercises are prerequisites for others.

Before beginning each exercise, be certain you have a thorough understanding of the exercise, its purpose and each of its steps.

These exercises have been listed in bold throughout this book.

Active Attention	109	Nose-Target	147
Automatic Look Back	111	On-Off (Placement)	148
Body Block for Control	113	Passive Attention	149
Cavaletti Course	114	Preparing for Vet Visit	150
Chill Out Game	116	Refresher Attention Games for a Week . . .	155
Conditioning to a Halter or Muzzle	117	Quiet at the Door	153
Countercondition Fear or Aggression	119	Recall Games	158
Counterconditioning Resource Guarding (Dog to Dog)	176	Recall from Distractions	159
Countering Lunging or Chasing	123	Recall using Premack	161
Crate Conditioning	125	Retrieve Games	162
Desensitizing Separation Anxiety	127	Scent Games	163
Down and Down/Stay	130	Self Control with Distractions	164
Down on Mat	131	Settle: Relaxed Down on Lead	165
Exchange Games	132	Shaped Relaxed Down	166
Finding the Heel Position	135	Side by Side Walking	168
Gotcha Game	136	Sit	168
Greeting Visitors at the Door	137	Sit for Greeting	170
Head and Shoulder Desensitization	140	Stay Using the Body Block	170
Grooming	141	Taking Treats Politely	171
Leaving the House	142	Teaching Toy Motivation	172
Leave It	143	Tug Games	174
Loose Lead Walking	144	Wait at Doorways	175
Name Recognition	146	Wait Off Lead	180
		Walking Past Other Dogs	180